

All the Days of My Life

Song 4 All my living days, Your goodness follows me

Psalm 23 (the Lord is my shepherd, goodness and mercy follow me, dwell in the house of the Lord forever); Revelation 7:17 (the Lamb will shepherd them)

All my living days, Your goodness follows me
Your mercy ever near, Your love eternally
In Your house, O Lord, forever I'll abide
Through endless days, with You, I'll live and thrive

Before my foes, You set a table rich and grand
With oil You anoint my head by Your own hand
My cup overflows, Your blessings never cease
Your favor fills my life with boundless peace

All my living days, Your goodness follows me
Your mercy ever near, Your love eternally
In Your house, O Lord, forever I'll abide
Through endless days, with You, I'll live and thrive

Though I walk through death's dark vale, I fear no ill
Your presence, Lord, is near, my heart You still Your rod and staff, they comfort and sustain
Your guiding hand delivers me from pain

All my living days, Your goodness follows me
Your mercy ever near, Your love eternally
In Your house, O Lord, forever I'll abide
Through endless days, with You, I'll live and thrive

You soothe my weary soul, O Lord, with tender care
You lead me in Your righteous paths, Your way so fair
In pastures green, You feed me by Your grace
By still waters, You guide me to Your place

All my living days, Your goodness follows me
Your mercy ever near, Your love eternally
In Your house, O Lord, forever I'll abide
Through endless days, with You, I'll live and thrive

You are my Savior, Lord, my Redeemer true
You lift me in Your way, Your light shines through
No shame shall touch my soul, Your joy I find
With gladness, I will follow close behind

All my living days, Your goodness follows me
Your mercy ever near, Your love eternally
In Your house, O Lord, forever I'll abide
Through endless days, with You, I'll live and thrive
